

BIOGRAPHIES

Dr. Siobhán Ní Bhriain, FRCPI, MSc., MRCP (UK), MRPsych.
National Clinical Lead for Integrated Care
Clinical Design & Innovation, HSE

Dr. Siobhán Ní Bhriain is a graduate of UCD and trained in Medicine and Psychiatry in the UK and Ireland. She has worked in TUH since 2006. Siobhán took up the post of National Clinical Advisor & Group Lead for Mental Health in November 2018 and moved to the role of National Clinical Lead for Integrated Care, Clinical Design and Innovation in February 2020.

Professor Kevin C. P. Conlon, MA MCh MBA FRCSI FACS
FRCSed FRCSG FTCD FASA
Professor of Surgery, TCD based at TUH

Professor Conlon is Professor of Surgery at TCD, and an Hepato-Pancreato-Biliary (HPB) consultant surgeon at TUH and St. Vincent's University Hospital, Dublin. He is a surgical oncologist with a clinical interest in benign and malignant diseases of the upper gastrointestinal tract. His research interests are focused on diseases of the pancreas. He was awarded the Honorary Fellowship of the American Surgical Association in 2020.

meathfoundation@tuh.ie

www.meathfoundation.ie

Research Symposium 2021

The Meath Foundation
Fondúireacht Na Mí

Healthcare Research, Education, Quality Improvement
& Arts in Health at Tallaght University Hospital

Programme

Friday 26th November 2021

On-Line

How to attend

- The link to join the Symposium via Zoom is <https://bit.ly/3mLNHZG>
- To avail of CPD/CEU, you will need to download an evaluation sheet from our website and email it before 2pm on the day to meathfoundation@tuh.ie to qualify.

CPD & NMBI : Applied for

PROGRAMME

8.30am	Registration
9:00am	Welcome – Ms Mairéad Shields, Chairman, The Meath Foundation
Opening address	Dr. Siobhán Ní Bhriain National Clinical Lead for Integrated Care Clinical Design & Innovation, HSE “Integrated Care – the past, present and the future”

9:30am Session 1: Scientific Programme Chairman: Prof Stephen Lane

Ms Julie Keane: “An exploration of MDT perspectives on ‘risk’ and ‘comfort’ feeding in a compromised stroke and geriatric population”

Prof Mark Little: “Investigating a role for type I interferon cytokines in the pathogenesis of ANCA-vasculitis”

Dr Karthikeyan Srinivasan: “A novel technique to reduce incidence of Phrenic palsy when performing Inter-scalene block”

Prof Veronica O’Keane: “Mapping the experiences of depression in the brain and body “

The Elizabeth O’Dwyer Award – Dawn Whelan CNS & Ciara Parthiban CNM2
“Integrated Oncology Support Service”

The Mary O’Connor Award – Louise Kelly, CNS, RNP Adult Emergency Dept
“Improving patient’s pressure ulcer care at the front door”

The J.A. Brian Keogh Award – Dr Rowan Casey, Consultant Urologist
‘Peritoneal dialysis catheters (PDCs): can we reduce failure rates and improve patient quality of life?’

Tea/Coffee

11.15am Session 2: Education Chairman: Prof Stephen Lane Presentation from Meath Foundation Fellows – MSc (RCSI) Graduates

Jason Connolly: “Trial of an Electronic Asset Tracking System at Tallaght University Hospital”

Averil Larke: “Policies, Procedures, Protocols and Guidelines (PPGs) Blended Learning Training Programme”

Grace Kinsella: ‘Introducing & Implementing an E-Rostering System for Non Consultant Hospital Doctors within a Dublin Academic Teaching Hospital’

11.45 am Session 3: Awards

The Meath Hospital Medal 2020/2021 : Dr Lorna Mooney

MF Research Fellowship 2021: Dr Chika Offiah

Research Grant Awards 2021: Announcement of successful applicants

MSc. Fellowships 2021 Awards: Announcement of successful applicants

12 noon Session 4: Keynote Address

Professor Kevin Conlon,
Professor of Surgery, TCD based at TUH

“The Surgeon in the era of precision medicine”

Closing remarks: Prof Stephen Lane, Chairman,
The Meath Foundation Research Committee